"Snack All Night"

Visit "Snack All Night" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm never satisfied with three meals a day
While the world is sleeping I'll be munching away Gonna sneak into the kitchen, gonna tiptoe down and turn on the light
Right, yeah, if no one's around to see you
It don't matter if you snack all night

A million chicken bones are under my bed

A pile of Twinkie wrappers all 'round my head
Jelly doughnuts to the left of me
Got a bag of chocolate chips on the right
Right, yeah, if you don't mind the calories
It don't matter if you snack all night
