It was a special day at the toys r us a big croud of people all making a fuss 4,000 in line and don't you know they'll do anything to get a tickle me elmo the doors flew open people started to scream as they made a b line for isle 16 punches were thrown stuff began to flow all because of damn tickle me elmo tickle me elmo whats the big deal people going crazy they'll lie cheat and steal tickle me elmo theirs none around I drove 19 hours around the whole damn town and no tickle me elmo the shelf was empty and the riot began a swat team arrived in a riot van Grandma fighting by the super nintendo I wish they never made that tickle me elmo saw a patch of red behind a teddy bear i snatched it up but it was radiant hair

December 24th and hes still a no show theres no such thing as tickle me elmo tickle me elmo what the hell is the deal people going insane kill kill kill kill tickle me elmo none to be found until december 26th when there will be millions around of tickle me elmo
