Phone ring 2 timesÂ...Â...Yeah mahn hereÂ's your song

Oh so she got you and your turned around again
She got you oh yes your thinking it's the end
Oh now she got you and she with another man
She got you struck down by your woman's hand

Bridge

She's fighting this war
And the enemy has gone
She's fighting this war
She's already won
(oh whoa whoa whoa whoa whoa oh won)

Chorus

Thinking about the times when you left her high You've been thinking about the times when you left her dry ya know
Now she's saying goodbye
You're thinking about the times when you done her wrong brother
Think about the strings that she's pulling on
And the good times only last so long
She's appearing in those places where she don't belong
Oh now Brother move on

Oh now she got you and you're joining in the trend
She got you thinking that you can just be friends And now you're broken pieces on the ground she's walking on you
And she's not even looking down

Bridge

She's fighting this war
Oh yes and the enemy has gone (oh long gone)
She's fighting this war
She's already won
(oh whoa whoa whoa whoa whoa oh won)

Chorus

Thinking about the times when you left her high
You've been thinking about the times when you left her
dry ya know
Now she's saying goodbye
You're thinking about the times when you done her
wrong brother
Think about the strings that she's pulling on
And the good times only last so long
belong
Oh now Brother move on

(Repeat Chorus)
Move on...Keep movin on
