She walk into me in this blazing red crescendo and she Talking to me no and I don't know where all the words go
She lighting fires burnin underneath my chair
But all she wants to know is if I ever cared.

She walk into me in this blazing red crescendo and she Talking so sweetly no and I don't know my head from the tip of my toes and now
She's looking at me like I'm on fire
I'm walking with another lady tonight

Check it out.....

Chorus
Got one up in the air (the air)
While the other falls down
Holding one above the water
While the other one drowns
If my lover found out
The hole I'm digging I can keep
It's only been half of a week
And I'm already five feet deep

She looking at me like she want to hold me close and now
She's kissing at my neck, starts tearing off my clothes, won't you
Put your ring on the table, use this time we've borrowed
And return back to our others hearts tomorrow

She making love like she don't want to go back home and a
She holding on a like she a been a long long time alone
Just got to see another night, another night
Just got to let go cause I know it isn't right and I'm losing the fight.

Chorus
Got one up in the air (the air)
While the other falls down
Holding one above the water

While the other one drowns
If my lover found out
The hole I'm digging I can keep
It's only been half of a week
And I'm already five feet deep

It's only been half of a week
And I'm already five feet deep
(Repeat 3 times to end)
