Once more I stand in the same spot as yesterday
The more I try the more I feel I got the blues
A situation that won't let me break away

Show my intention a fine model I could be
It's just a vision I got from the TV news
There is displacement in me that fucks my head and it's called

The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me
Holds me behind this door
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on...

I realized I wanna buy a GTO
So then my life will be complete and on the go
It's nothing but 3 more letters in my doubt

It makes me wonder this condition is too static
If it's somatic or genetic ma thematic
And when I meet Daniel Johnston I will tell him all about

The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me
Keeps me from working it out
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on...

Once more I bled but now I can call it a day
The sun came down and I still feel I got the blues
A situation that won't let me break away

I stop to think about the reasons I complain
If it's somatic or genetic ma thematic
And when tomorrow comes I know I'll be the the same cause I found

The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me

Helps to sustain my crown
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on me
The "fall apart" on...
