I can see the light upon your face
And then watch it disappear, without a trace
And yes, when your body and soul close to mine
My head starts to spin and my hands start to shake
So is this a dream, or am I never awake?

Stay, don't ever leave me lonely
And I will gladly give my life to you
So please won't you stay?

I surrender to your warm embrace
I dream and suddenly I'm in another place
And yes, it's a miracle, I'm under your spell
My heart is on fire, I have no regrets
If I never find you, I'll never forget

Stay, don't ever leave me lonely
And I will gladly give my life to you
So please won't you stay?

Stay, don't ever leave me lonely
And I will gladly give my life to you
So please won't you stay?

Won't you stay?
Won't you stay?

Stay, don't ever leave me lonely
And I will gladly give my life to you
So please won't you stay?

Stay, don't ever leave me lonely
And I will gladly give my life to you
So please won't you stay?

Won't you stay?
Won't you stay?
