There's something wrong somewhere
Cos that scar on your face
Didn't used to be there
It's going down smooth
It's going down smooth
It's slips in the groove
It's going down smooth
It's going down
I've been down in this
I've been down in this
Sorry, sorry for fools
It's going down.....
I can't speak

I can hardly open my eyes
I can't eat
Cos my teeth have swallowed insides
There's something, there's something wrong
There's something, there's something wrong
There's something, there's something wrong
There's something, there's something wrong
