The Joker (with echo) [x4]

Knock knock who's there? Werd cunt Werd who?
Never heard of him so ken what fuck you
Don't ring a bell so you had to go and knock
Now a knock knock knock until the fucking doors broke
I'm Scottish I'm not milking a thing
That's the main fucking reason that the phone don't ring
That I'm not picked up so label all you like
But no label so I'm able just to breakout on the mic

So three UK's walk into the bars
A Scottish an Irish but the English went hard
So the other two left and you laugh at expense
And the Welsh he can't even kick it with them
I'm the joker

The Joker (with echo) [x4]

Ha ha ha here I go second verse
Seen this scene and it seemed like a circus
This rap ting aint me but I murk it
And that's tongue in cheek no cheek see a cunt spit
Right in his accent no faking my actions
Writing and acting is not going to happen
If rapping so happens to be something daft then
Call me a joke and folk just keep laughing
I'll keep on lapping you all on the tracks then Run right pass tap you all on the backs then
Sprint up ahead switch lanes and I past them
In big clown shoes can't fit in these bastards

Big clown shoes can't fit in these bastards
Had to say it twice cause sometimes I'm too fast for Midge little rappers nippy little bastards
At least take a joke I'm a joke try harder
Yeah try harder I'm having a laugh man
I'm past break point over the damn limit with my lyrics
I'm a Joker
