Give me a reason to keep it all together Sing me a song and help me still believe Give me the strength, yes fight for what I stand for But help me to see how I should be
Which ways the high road and how do I get there?
Things seem so dark, won't you shed some light
please?
Don't know where to turn, well, don't know where I'm going
Help me to see how life should be.

Cuz there's seven different ways to Sunday don't you know
That if a man wants to leave, you better let him go Well there's seven different ways to Sunday don't you
know
Just let him leave, let him go, let him go yeah.

Give me a reason and we'll keep it all together Sing me the song, I swear you help me still believe Give me the strength, yes, to fight for what I stand for Help me to see where I should be.
Which ways the high road and how do I get there?
Things seem so dark, won't you shed some light
please?
Don't know where to turn, well, don't know where I'm going
Help me to see how life should be.

know
That if a man wants to leave, yes, you better let him go, ooo
Well there's seven different ways to Sunday don't you
know
Just let him leave, let him go, let him go yeah. Hey!

[Sax Solo]

Well there's seven different ways to Sunday don't you
know
That if a man wants to leave, yes, you better let him go, right

Well there's seven different ways to Sunday don't you
know
Just let him leave, let him go, let him go yeah.
