I check your chest you're warm
I check your neck you're alive
This scythe soothes Corsican wind chimes

Reassign a program success
Relent ungentleness
Restraint divides mice and men

Annica this life is fleeting
Dark times, lots of abortions
Finally, someone loves me

On my watch we're safe as churches
I think I found my purpose
Corralling Pestilence

I was unclean and hateful
Struck down, by the system
This vest gives me authority

No wind, instrumentation
Morning airport reunion
These thoughts are non-culinary

Annica this life is fleeting
Dark times, lots of abortions
Finally, someone loves me

On my watch we're safe as churches
I think I found my purpose
Corralling Pestilence

Annica this life is fleeting
Dark times, lots of abortions
Finally, someone loves me

On my watch we're safe as churches
I think I found my purpose
Corralling Pestilence

Yeah!
