Don't take it personal baby
I'm just a guy at heart
There's no such thing as a maybe
I'll just rip you apart

I can't fall in love
No, I can't fall in love

And you're better off anyhow
I'll just beat you up and spit you back out
And I won't sell out
To the sound of hearts beating aloud
Take cover, I'm coming for you

Don't say I didn't warn you baby
Of my actions and disregards
Of the feelings of ladies
I'm just playing my cards

I can't fall in love
No, I can't fall in love

And you're better off anyhow
I'll just beat you up and spit you back out
And I won't sell out
To the sound of hearts beating aloud
Take cover, I'm coming for you
With no remorse
I'll take your heart and just want more

At least I don't hide, lie, or deny the truth in your eyes
At least I don't hide, lie, or deny the truth in your eyes
At least I don't hide, lie, or deny the truth in your eyes
