"Steady Now"

Twist and pull, needles through sow up your old ways
Candy coat for the kids, they hear what you say
Fill my glass, keep it brown, just like the old days
Ego lies, ego lies

But I refuse to make this about me,
Shackled hands but my eyes they do see

Oh steady now, too many ups and downs
Oh steady now, all just wears me out

Tuck away all your flames on burning bridges
File down any sides, that might be ridged
Colorize all your dreams, now this could happen
Tell the truth, tell the truth

But I refuse to make this about me,
Shackled hands but my eyes they do see

Oh steady now, too many ups and downs
Oh steady now, all just wears me out

Older, getting older, I remember where we stand.
Older, getting older, I remember all our plans.

Oh steady now, too many ups and downs
Oh steady now, all just wears me out
