Bryan:

Well, I can't control the universe

'Cause I'm only a man

And I may read the papers

But it won't tell me who I am

Shane:

And if you really need a new philosophy

Well, there's one that makes sense

The one I profess

I say:

Chorus:

Hey Whatever

Let your beauty come alive

Let your colour fill the sky

And say:

Whatever!

Why don't you liberate your mind?

Let your colour fill the sky

Shane:

All the world's a waiting room

And we're standing in line

For the answer to the question:

What makes this fine?

Mark:

Don't let'em change your story

Don't let'em change your song

Don't let the gurus & philosopher

Lead you on

(AH,AH,AH,AH,AH,AH,AAAH)

Chorus:

Hey Whatever

Let your beauty come alive

Let your colour fill the sky

And say:

Whatever!

Why don't you liberate your mind?

Let your colour fill the sky

(WOOO!)

Mark:

It's like taking a seat at the roulette table

Just spinning the wheel

Good or bad

You take what comes
Don't change how you feel
If you're a champion of science
Or you're just some freak show fool
What cannot be proved (no,no)
Can still be true
And I say:
Chorus:
Hey Whatever
Let your beauty come alive
Let your colour fill the sky
And say:
Whatever!
Why don't you liberate your mind?
Let your colour fill the sky
Hey Whatever
Let your beauty come alive
Let your colour fill the sky
And say:
Whatever!
Why don't you liberate your mind?
Let your colour fill the sky
(AH,AH,AH,AH,AH,AH,AAAH)
Heeeeeeeey whatever...
