"I Will Reach You"

Everybody's got an answer
To a question that they need to know
"Still broken on the one thing
I didn't ask you, do you have to go?"

Now I'm looking for a reason
It isn't easy but I gotta have hope
Sometimes it can be harder
To remember that you just let go

Always seems to be something
To remind me what I miss the most
"Was you all the one thing
I believed in when it all falls down"

So if you got a candle you better light it now
And if you gotta voice you better shout out loud
Raise your hands above this crowd and I will reach you
Can you hear me, can you hear me now?

Even though I can't see you
I can feel you after all this time
So baby, if you're hearing
All I'm asking for is just one sign

'Cause I never met anyone
Who was lost but didn't wanna be found

So if you got a candle you better light it now
And if you gotta voice you better shout out loud
Raise your hands above this crowd and I will reach you
Can you hear me, can you hear me? I will reach you
Can you hear me now?

Light it up, I will reach you
Shout out loud, I will reach you
Raise your hands above the sky

So if you got a candle you better light it now, yeah
And if you gotta voice you better shout out loud
Raise your hands above this crowd and I will reach you
Can you hear me, can you hear me, can you hear me now?

Did you hear me? Did you hear me? I will reach you Can you hear me? I will reach you
Raise your hands above this crowd and I will reach you
Can you hear me now?
