Mark:

After all the lights comes out, and the circus has left town.

Will you be the one I can count on?

Will you be around?

When the stage is dark and empty, and the last song has been sung.

Will the love you feel still be strong to help me carry on?

Let me know the words inside you.

Say I do.

Tell me it's love, that's all I wanna hear you say.

That we're enough and you're always gonna feel this way.

No matter what, no matter where.

You know I'll do it all again.

Tell me it's love, tell me it's love.

Say I'm the one.

Shane:

When it's easier to walk away.

Are you strong enough to turn the page?

Do you know how to begin again?

Would you let me in?

I get through anything I have to.

If I got you.

Tell me it's love, that's all I wanna hear you say.

That we're enough and you're always feel this way.

No matter what, no matter where.

You know I'll do it all again.

Tell me it's love, tell me it's love.

Say I'm the one.

Nicky:

Coz you know I want nothing else.

But to have you to myself.

Your love is all I ever knew.

If you feel it.

Let me know the words inside you.
Say I do.

Mark:

Tell me it's love, that's all I wanna hear you say.
That we're enough and you're always gonna feel this way.
No matter what, no matter where.
You know I'll do it all again.
Tell me it's love, tell me it's love.
Say I'm the one.

That's all I wanna hear you say.
That we're enough and you're always gonna feel this
way.
No matter what, no matter where.
You know I'll do it all again.
Tell me it's love, tell me it's love.
Say I'm the one.

Say I'm the one. Say I'm the one.
