(Milton Nascimento/Ruy Guerra/Matthew Moore)

My little fairy tale friend

My little tired frail friend

Where are all your friends and dreams from the old days,

Tinkerbell and Peter Pan?

Where is all the hope Snow White tried to give you?

Where has it all gone?

Gone away

My little fairy tale friend

My long awaited frail friend

Sleeping Beauty's kiss is still somewhere waiting

With you magic sword and wand

Alice and the Wonderland that she showed you,

Where has it all gone?

Gone away

My little fairy tale friend

My little frightened pale friend

Go ahead and cut the night of the forest

Go and kill the dragon's fire

Show me all the games you know from the stories

So that I can play

Make me smile
