Life without consequence
Is the ultimate dissonance
Life without consequence
Is the ultimate dissonance

Open your eyes
Toward yourself
He gave you a gift in near death
And now that you're alive
You've already died
You've already died

You desperately run away
When you should get on your knees and pray
You desperately run away
Desperately run away
When you should get on your knees and pray
Get on your knees and pray

Pray for forgiveness
You know not what you do

You desperately run away
You desperately run away from him
You desperately run away from him
You desperately run away
You desperately run away from him
You desperately run away from him

As the worms devour your flesh
As the worms devour your flesh

You desperately run away
When you should get on your knees and pray
You desperately run away
Desperately run away
When you should get on your knees and pray
Get on your knees and pray

Do you fear my god now?

As the worms devour your flesh

As the worms devour your flesh
As the worms devour your flesh
