All my life I have been waiting
For this moment to arrive
I am speeding up the tempo inside
(Fly high)
I doubt that the circles that I'm Moving in are something I could
Ever get out of alive
(I love to say that)
I can feel that it starts burning
I got my fingers between
Like a shock the torture
Gets to my face
Tip-top you must go out
You must go out
I have decided for your joy
Chorus:

No easy coming, open my eyes
I can see everything is mortal
No easy going, I realise
I can see everything
And that everything is mortal
All my life I have been waiting for this
It keeps me from sleeping (allright)
I doubt that the circles
That I'm moving in
Are something I could ever get out of alive
Yeah!
Chorus
