

While I Breathe, I Hope "Road Trip"

This weekend is overdue/and the truth comes out/oh man we hoped the pressure to be someone else/had vanished this summer/behind your 2 month ordeal/and maybe you could grow up/and maybe you could see through our eyes this time/but you can't understand/why we're so far away/no one knows the stance you take/on the issues that the normal kids face/more than once a brainwashed victim/that could've been prevented/to ask/to plead/to get on our knees/what lies beneath your hurting face/a kid that's lost and cannot place/those who take his sadness from him/from the one who took his burden for him/without despair/throw aside all excuses/you've passed up your last chance
