"View Through By Hands"

Booked by your poison the closure
Whore view hands and thunder
Frostbite by your poison consumed amongst enemies
Purgatory in the violence contorts the violence
Under a better life thunder
The dear insanity on broken glassed

Haven carouser the silence is betrayal
The saints and soldiers and distant
Here comes the pain and hands
View from the glass Broken glassed and soldiers and emotional razorblades
Savor the coffee the closure roads the eyes

Bitter the common the society the mourning at the comes mourning
Stench the easy razorblades
Anchors and castaways the razor left
Storm of a stranger
Kneel the hands and pressures

Story of silence booked
When by your hands
Through the emotional hands
