If you come across an angel
Tell her that she has my heart
And I'm breakin' down without her
Ever since we've been apart
If you come across an angel
More beautiful than anything you've seen

I must've tried her number
About a thousand times
I sent so many letters
But I can't seem to find her anywhere
She's disappeared
Gone without a trace
How I regret the day I let her get away

If you come across an Angel
Tell her that she has my heart
And I'm breakin' down without her
Ever since we've been apart
If you come across an angel
More beautiful than anything you've seen
Will you bring her back to me

She always said she wanted
No one else but me
I thought I wasn't ready
I thought she'd wait for me
But I was wrong and now she's gone
Leaving me with this
The thing I didn't say
The words to make her stay

If you come across an angel
Tell her that she has my heart
And I'm breakin' down without her
Ever since we've been apart
If you come across an angel
More beautiful than anything you've seen
Will you bring her back to me

Tell her that it's killing me
Never been so sorry about anything in my life

Tell her I'd go anywhere
For just a chance to try and make it right

If you come across an angel
Tell her that she has my heart
And I'm breakin' down without her
Ever since we've been apart
If you come across an angel
More beautiful than anything you've seen
Will you bring her back to me

If you come across an angel
Tell her that she has my heart
And I'm breakin' down without her
Ever since we've been apart
If you come across an angel
More beautiful than anything you've seen
Will you bring her back to me
