Im half cut,a coloured star halogen days long more sinner
I grabbed the bolts and kept the faith
I paint the tears that roll down your face

On to a board thats pink and grey Just like Athena in a city arcade
I talk to you and if we agree, You'd better reverse than look down on me

That's what I want (Test Card Girl)
I connect myself (Test Card Girl)
That's punishment (Test Card Girl)
For protecting myself (Test Card Girl)

I'll turn out the light but don't let me go far, I'll follow my dreams for as long as they are,
an innocence that's gone to seed
I understand when I'm watching TV.
Queue it right on the one for the action world, switch to two for the testcard girl she's holding on to her best friend, she knows her innocence is coming to end.

Testcard the girl, Keep the sound,
next to the heart, next to the light,
I'll hurt myself, I'll make you cry
I'll make you cry with all my might,
here come the flys so shut your mouth Cyan eyes in hanging park,
I found a haven in a concrete arc.
Devoid of flowers and a cynical smell, sitting flush in a parallel.
An innocence that's gone to seed,
everything but my mother's perfect teeth.
Your influence and effluent scam,
I'm trying to remember who the fuck I am.

Testcard the girl, Keep the sound,
next to the heart, next to the light,
I'll hurt myself, I'll make you cry
I'll make you cry with all my might,

here come the flys so shut your mouth

Discard the girl...
