You don't mean it

You need a uniform
So you won't be ignored
You are affected
And so you're accepted

It's time you invested in a bottle of poison
So we don't have to hear about you bitchin and moanin
You think you could afford a fucking bottle of asprin

Boo fuckin hoo you're not the only one whose life's a piece of shit
And yet miraculously somehow we all seem to deal with it Did anybody think that you would really seriously slit your wrists in fact I think that everyone thinks you're seriously full of shit

You don't mean it

You need a uniform
So you won't be ignored
You are affected
So you're accepted

It's time you invested in a bottle of poison
You think you could afford a fucking bottle of asprin

You think you're saying something relevant as you connect the dots
You never realized you have to get in line to suck a cock You're telling me that fifty million screaming fans are never wrong
I'm telling you that fifty million screaming fans are fucking morons

You don't mean it

piece of shit
And yet miraculously somehow we all seem to deal with
