Who am I?
I'm not sure what I'm doing here
It's been too long
I've been staring in the mirror of the past

Now I'm ready to dream
I'm ready to hope at last
'Cause I've come to believe
That You don't see me in the past
In Your looking glass

Help me, Lord
Help me bring this to an end
I want to heal
I want to feel my heart again
And not the way it's been

'Cause I'm tired of the pain
I'm tired of the emptiness
Now I'm ready to dream
'Cause You don't see me in the past
In Your looking glass

Now I'm ready to dream
I'm ready to hope at last
'Cause I've come to believe
That You don't see me in the past
In Your looking glass
In the past, in Your looking glass
