Here I sit by my window thinking about all the things that Iâve been through There were times where I never thought I get to where I got to
Had some angels to guide me, someone to ? lay on all my love
Now this is my chance to say ainât go nothin but love

For my family that raised me (shout out, shout out)
And my teacher that done praised me (shout out, shout out)
To anyone who tried to hate on me (shout out, shout out)
Even the oneâs who tried to break me, even the oneâ s who tried to take me down

Thereâve been haters since this world been going â round (nothin but love, nothin but love)
Why they take a thing and trying to crush them down (nothin but love, nothin but love)
I ainât even trying to hold on to that now (nothin but love, nothin but love)
Ainât got nothin but love for you (nothin but love, nothin but love)

I could hold on to pain but that ainât what my lifeâs about
I ainât blaming nobody if I ainât got my stuff worked out
I got love for my self, ainât gonna regret anything Iâ ve done
I just wanna sing my song, ainât got nothin but love

For all the players on the street (shout out, shout out) To all my ? doing their own thing (keep on, keep strong)
To all my exes that done wrong me, stepped on me, canât hold me down

To all the givers and the takers

To my crew from way back when
To the cold wars and the stares
And the ones that I ain't met For my self for sticking with me
For the one's I miss from up above Anyone who's ever been a part of me Ain't got nothin but love
