On the day that you left me
You said, you had no regrets
There's a bond between us
That hasn't been broken yet

And the feelings between us
Will never disappear
How can you be far away?
When your spirit's here

You're still my man, nothing can change it
We still belong together
You're still my man, nothing can change it
Our love will last forever

And the seasons of our love
Will always change I know
Maybe that's the reason
You felt you had to go

But soon you'll be missing me
Darling, I know you well
There's a magic we share together
And no one can break that spell

You're still my man, nothing can change it
We still belong together
You're still my man, nothing can change it
Our love will last forever

I'll wait for you
The thought that keeps me going each day
Is I believe you still love me
I love you more than words can say

You're still my man, nothing's gonna change it
Don't you know, you oughta know, we belong together
You're still my man and nothing can change it
Oh, baby, oh, darling, you're in my heart forever

'Cause you're my man
Without you

They'd be no love at all

You're still my man, nothing can change it
Don't you know, you oughta know, we belong together
Oh you're still my man, nothing can change it
Oh, baby, oh, darling, you're in my heart forever

You're still my man, nothing can change it
I'm yours, you know you're mine, you're in my heart forever
You're still my man, nothing can change it
Don't you know, you oughta know, we belong together
