He's a lot like the rain
He's refreshing and warm on a summer day
And he's always in another place
Just like the wind

He's a lot like the fall
Ever changing he moves along
And his silence is colorful
Just like the leaves he's changing me

Just like the seasons he'll come around
He's the beating in my heart now
Just like the seasons he's never dull
He's my own little miracle
And I never wanna let him go

He's a light like the snow
He is gentle and beautiful
And his heart it almost never shows
He's simple but bright
So bright

Just like the seasons he'll come around
He's the beating in my heart now
Just like the seasons he's never dull
He's my own little miracle
And I never wanna let him go

He's the beating in my heart
Soft and slow
Moving in a simple light
He's beautiful
He's hiding the way
He doesn't know
We're in the same place

Just like the seasons he'll come around
He's the beating in my heart now
Just like the seasons he's never dull
He's my own little miracle
And I never want to let him go

He's a lot like myself
He's in love but he'd never tell
