Goin' on through my life
I've met you, a lightin' view.
I've now understood those feelings that I've been livin' since I tried to be your friend

'cause sometimes we fallÂ... in loveÂ...
but I know in your life you are not alone!

Never met him, but I hate him
'cause he can keep your hands warm!
But I am wrong, I should like him
'cause he makes you happy!
In our classroom I would like to disappear from your sightÂ...
Â...but I can't look into your eyes

I should be your friend and never let you alone!
Â...never let you aloneÂ...
and I'll not be afraid of stayn' alone!

Tonight, in my room, thinkin' about you,
I will cry another time in front of my TV!
Alone, in my room, writing this song for you,
I will dry this fuckin' papers with my tears of blood

Tonight, in my room, an echo will sound of blueÂ...
Â...I'll wake up screamin' your name during my dreams
of you!
