At the end of my life when I take that journey all alone
And I'm on my own and there's no one there to save me
Oh when I look back at all the things that I've done wrong
You know I wasn't always strong, Lord will you take me?

'Cause I been down as far as a man can go
I wanna be ready when I hear that whistle blow

And I'm on the last train running and the devil's coming Hoping that my good outweighs the bad
And I'm heading for the station, my final destination
Praying for the Lord to take my hand
And I'm on the last train running

When I close my eyes and I'm holding on to my last breath
I don't want my regrets coming back to haunt me
When it's far too late to ask forgiveness for my sins
I hope my enemies and friends can both forgive me

Will there be tears for me when I go?
Or will I be just another name carved in a stone?

When I'm on the last train running and the devil's coming
Doing all he can to take my soul
And I'm heading for the station, my final destination
Praying for the Lord to take me home
And I'm on the last train running

You only get one shot, one chance against the clock and
You only get one life, one chance to make it right

When I'm on the last train running and the devil's
coming
Doing all he can to take my soul
Oh Lord won't you come and take me home!?
On the last train running

When I'm on the last, on the last train

When I'm on the last train running
