It's dead real

Yo, why is Jadakiss as hard as it gets
Why is the industry designed to keep the artist in debt
And why them dudes ain't ridin' if there part of your set
And why they never get it poppin' but they party to death

Yeah, and why they gon' give you life for a murder
Turn around only give you eight months for a b**,
it's goin' down
Why they sellin' people CD's for under a dime
If it's all love daddy why you come wit' your n

Why my homies ain't get that cake?
Why is a brother up North better than Jordan?
That ain't get that break?
Why you ain't stackin' instead of tryin' to be fly?

Why is rattin' at an all time high?
Why are you even alive?
Why they kill Tupac n' Chris?
Why at the bar you ain't take straight shots instead of poppin' Criss?

Why them bullets have to hit that door?
Why did Kobe have to hit that raw?
Why he kiss that raw?
Why?

All that I been givin'
Is this pain that I've been living
They got me in the system
Why they gotta do me like that?

Try'd to make it my way
But got sent up on the highway
Why? Oh why?
Why they do me like that?

Why would people push pounds and powder?
Why did b knock down the towers?

Why you around them cowards?
Why Aaliyah have to take that flight?

Why my homie D ain't pull out his Ferrari?
Why he take that bike?
Why they gotta open your package and read your mail?
Why they stop lettin' brothers get degreez in jail?

Why you gotta do eighty-five percent of your time?
And why do rappers lie in eighty-five percent of they rhymes?
Why a brother always want what he can't have?
Why I can't come through in the pecan Jag?

Why did crack have to hit so hard?
Even though it's almost over
Why people can't get no jobs?
Why they come up wit the witness protection?

Why they let the terminator win the election?
Come on, pay attention
Why sell in the stores what you can sell in the streets?
Why I say the hottest s but be sellin' the least?

All that I been givin'
Is this pain that I've been living
They got me in the system
Why they gotta do me like that?

Try'd to make it my way
But got sent up on the highway
Why? Oh why?
Why they do me like that?

Why Halle have to let a white man pop her to get a Oscar?
Why Denzel have to be crooked before he took it?
Why they didn't make the CL6 wit' a clutch?
And if you don't smoke why the Hell you reachin' for my dutch?

Why rap, 'cause I need air time
Why be on the curb wit' a, 'Why Lie, I Need A Beer', sign
Why all the young brothers is dyin'?
'Cause they moms at work, they pops is gone, they livin' wit' i?

Why they ain't give us a cure for aids?
Why my diesel have fiends in the spot on the floor for days?
Why you screamin' like it's slug, it's only the hawk?

Why my buzz in L.A. ain't like it is in New York?

Why you forcin' you to be hard?
Why ain't you a thug by choice?
Why the whole world love my voice?
Why try to tell 'em that it's the flow son?

And you know why they
Made the new twenties
'Cause I got all my old ones
That's why

All that I been givin'
Is this pain that I've been living
They got me in the system
Why they gotta do me like that?

Try'd to make it my way
But got sent up on the highway
Why? Oh why?
Why they do me like that?

Why? Oh why?
Oh, why?
Why?
Tell me why?
