So tired of walkin' around draggin' this ghost
Can't escape the constant ache that wears on my bones
It's too strong to rub it out
It's stuck like a stain
A permanent reminder drivin' me insane
I still see finality in that look on your face
Still hide this bitterness I can almost taste
All the things I should have said still echo inside
I can't listen any longer
It won't change goodbye

I scream your name
To the rain fallin' down on me
And I break the silence inside me
Since you left me with nothing to say
So I scream your name

Anger so buried deep
Eats you up inside
Spreads like a parasite
There's no where to hide
I want to let it go
Before it smothers my soul
Uncover my heart again
Fillin' the hole

I scream your name
To the rain fallin' down on me
And I break the silence inside me
Since you left me with nothing to say
So I scream your name
To the rain

I fall down on my knees
My face hits the ground
I throw my tears into the storm
As the thunder sounds

I scream your name
To the rain fallin' down on me
And I break the silence inside me
Since you left me with nothing to say

So I scream your name
I scream your name
To the rain
I scream your name
