Walk up on an average day, everything's looking fine Got up, took my shower, I dressed up in the fastest time
Walked out the door, my landlord's teasing me
Asked if I got a date with you I gave him a smile, strangely, funny, that ain't cheering me
Lately there are colors
Floating in my life everywhere
But not a single one of them
Is for you babe, you're just not there

Oh, the feeling is wavering
Oh but I feel fine
Oh, you're not what I'm thinking of Coz, I've somebody else here
Inside my mind

Friends come up and ask me bout, how you're doing lately
Frankly don't bother anymore, I'd rather talk about the weather
No, I'm not mad, I still like you, but things aren't the way they used to be
I can still put my arms around you, but there's no electricity

Repeat Refrain
Repeat Chorus

I don't know how to tell you I guess I don't want to Maybe it's just an attraction
But he's really getting my attention

Repeat Chorus
