came home today, just another day been working hard just to pay our rent walked up the stairs, into our room, to my surprise someone's with you

i told you once, i told you twice dont want to hear your tired lies, so pack your bags, cause i don't want you coming back no more i don't want you coming back no more

So pack your bags, get out that door dont want to see, your face no more
cause i don't want you, i dont want you, no

dont want to hear your tired lies, so pack your bags,

i don't want you coming back no more...
