Standing on the top and the world was eating out of my hands
Having the time of my life in a rock'n roll band
We had a few good years but then we started to run out of time
Now I'm working so hard to take back
What was allready mine

I never gonna run
Never gonna run away again
Life's been to survive
Now it starts to come alive
And I never gonna fade
Never gonna fade away again
There's no compromise
Now I know it's No More Living On Lies

Tied up within myself for the longest time
I thought that it didn't matter
Thought I was doing fine
Had to dig it up from inside
Just to stand my ground
It's gonna taste even better now the second time around

I never gonna run
Never gonna run away again
Life's been to survive
Now it starts to come alive
And I never gonna fade
Never gonna fade away again
There's no compromise
Now I know it's No More Living On Lies

No one cares about your pain
When you're losing your fame it's like crying in a hard rain
I've reloaded my batteries and regained my insanity
Now it's time to face reality

I never gonna run

Never gonna run away again
Life's been to survive
Now it starts to come alive
And I never gonna fade
Never gonna fade away again
There's no compromise
Now I know it's No More Living On Lies
