Tell me are you listening
Tell me can you hear
Better get yourself together, boy
Oh, before I disappear

'Cause I ain't gonna take it
Take it anymore
I said I'd be your lover
Never said I'd be more

Do I have to sit and listen
To you tell me lies
The time has come
To break these ties

(You better listen)
You've got a lot to learn
You're gonna tumble
When I let you fall
(You better listen)
You're gonna feel the burn
And be a victim
Of your own desire
'Cause I'm gonna fight
Fire with fire

You say you got a little lonely
I get lonely too
That don't make you right, now
I wouldn't be there with you

Baby, when it happens
Oh, time and time again
It gets a little harder
Oh, to pretend

Oh, do I have to sit and listen
To you tell me lies
Time has come
To break these ties, hey

(You better listen)

You've got a lot to learn
You're gonna tumble
When I let you fall
(You better listen)
You're gonna feel the burn
And be a victim
Of your own desire
'Cause I'm gonna fight
Fire with fire

Oh, fire with fire
Fire with
Fire with fire
Fire with fire

Oh
(You better listen)
You've got a lot to learn
You're gonna tumble
When I let you fall
(You better listen)
You're gonna feel the burn
And be a victim
Of your own desire

(You better listen)
You've got a lot to learn
You're gonna tumble
When I let you fall
(You better listen)
You're gonna feel the burn
And be a victim
Of your own desire
'Cause I'm gonna fight
Fire with fire
Fire with fire (fire)
Fire with fire
Ooh ooh ooh

Be a victim
Of your own desire
Gonna fight
Fire with fire, oh
You better listen, boy
