I was born with the mark of the devil's luck
Blessed with a life busted, I'm hurt, I'm torn, I'm struck Yesterday you were just a dream in my bed
A gypsy angel calling to me from beyond the dead

I been told only give your soul to a heart of gold
I believe that a heart and soul are sacred to the love we breed

I'd never doubt about finding you in my fate
I walk this world knowing you could be only steps away
I don't know when, I guard the hope it ain't long You are the part of me that keeps me young and holding on

I been told only give your soul to a heart of gold
breed

You have got a heart of gold
You have got a heart of gold
You have got a heart of gold
You know that I know

SOLO

I been told only give your soul to a heart of gold
breed
You been told only give your soul to a heart of gold And you believe that a heart and soul are sacred to the love we breed

You have got a heart of gold
You have got a heart of gold
You have got a heart of gold
You know that I know
