You can't open my door! Can you feel it now?
All the pain is gone, but you won't let me belong...to your heart or your side
No, it's you. You can't open the door Everytime I sat alone with you crying down to me, "You could be so wonderful & free!"
But, you're not going to let me, so...
YOU CAN'T OPEN MY DOOR!
So, your secrets all look too plain
Like the time I saw you in pain, & I stayed awake all night long just watching you breathe
And that's, well...um, it will
Oh, it will be just you & me...empty
You can't open my door
You can't open my door like you did once before
Oh, so free. Til death behind me
Cause I can't stand to see, those pains slipped into me
I WILL TELL YOU: Oh! No, no...
You can't open my door
