Uh
Check check
Yo yo yo
Across the room
Share a little daze with me
Crazy momma how your sent play with me
Eyes covered hide in your heart angelic lookin'
Thinkin' misinterest but I can tell you're lookin'
Face-to-face and eye-to-eye stance with me
I didn't even say nothin' I felt you wanna dance with me
You pushed me back a little when I kissed your hand
Said you was attracted to me truly but you had a man
I put my finger up
Shhhh
Don't say nothin'
He ain't here is he?
We could play or somethin'
He at the crib? Oh
I see you live with him
What you gonna do get married and have some kids with him?
Us could be just a weekend thing
Just a weekday thing
Just a thing ma
Look we could have everything else
Before the night let me have you to myself girl holla at me

You can have the rest of your life baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Just give me tonight
Give me tonight
Big Will comin' through like (whoop whoop)
Tra-Knox comin' through with (whoop whoop)
These girls off the hook ain't they? (right, right)

[Tra-Knox]

Baby girl you know exactly what I want
No I'm not tryin' to replace your man
I just don't like to touch you all over
Baby girl you talk secret rendezvous
Look at my eyes I'm down with you
All I'm tryin' to do is change the view for a moment or two

Baby girl I don't wanna think if you had to have Baby I don't wanna be alone
You got me all in the zone
You could feel my joints baby
You can have the rest of your life baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Just give me tonight
Give me tonight

[Will]

Think of the length of your life as 100 yards long
Give me a quarter inch that's all I'm asking
Do the math I'm the sun you the earth
It's u-n-i-verse
And it's the worst since I thirst to taste your nectar
I know you got a life mamma
Trust me I don't wanna bring you life drama
I can barely hear myself think slide with me
Dip out the side door take a ride with me
Let me hear about (uhhhh)
What you think about (uhhhh)
What you need to do (uhhhh)
The things you dream about (whoa)
Your body with but I know where your heart is at phone rings 2x Let it ring ma call him back
Wishin' I could stop the clock to make it last with ya
Am I goin' to be home alone with a glass slipper?
Is it asinine to pretend with another fella?
Midnight the story ends like Cinderella

You can have the rest of your life baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby yeah
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Just give me tonight

Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life baby
Just give me tonight
You can have the rest of your life sugar
Just give me tonight
Give me tonight
