You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let 'em go
If you hold on, they'll puncture your lungs
And separate your spine from your skull
You gotta let 'em go

You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let 'em go
If you hold on, they'll bite your fingers off
And tear you limb from limb
It's second nature to them

You gotta let go when they get that old
You gotta let 'em go
If you hold on they'll tear your stomach open
And rip your guts out with their teeth
You gotta just release
