Pint-Sized Fred, Sha-Shawty-y
Will Thwizzle Productizzle

Well the green light's on, and you should know
You're across this bay, but I can't let go.
Oh, these eggs are scrambled, you're full of lies
Oh, these love triangles under TJ's eyes
And I'd leave this town if it meant you loved me,
'Cause you shine so bright, just like those stars above
me.
And I'd give it all just to lay one night in your ams.

Well I'm J. Gatsby, my raps be so outrageous And just like F. Scott Fitzgerald I keep turning new pages.
You know, it's tough growing up living off minimum wages
But now they call me new money and my success is contagious.
Well all this wealth that I have well it was rightfully earned,
But even more valuable are all the lessons I've learned.
The only regret I have is all the people I've spurned,
Oh, but mostly you, Daisy, 'cause you're the one that I've yearned.
And back when we were together, I always gave you my best,
But to you I was tainted, a scarlet 'A' on your breast.
And when we said our goodbyes, my heart beat out of my chest,
Oh, but now second chances, damn I feel blessed.
And so I moved 'cross the bay just to be close residential,
Because my wealth and my feelings, well they have grown exponential.
Daisy, you don't understand, you're love to me is essential;
I hope you open your eyes and realize our potential.

Daisy please

Well the green light's on, and you should know

(You should know this, Daisy)
You're across this bay, but I can't let go.
(Girl, you drive me crazy)
Oh, these eggs are scrambled, you're full of lies
Oh, these love triangles under TJ's eyes
(Under TJ's eyes)
And I'd leave this town if it meant you loved me,
(Oh, Daisy)
'Cause you shine so bright, just like those stars above
me.
(I love you baby)
And I'd give it all just to lay one night in your arms.
(One night in your arms)

What does extravagance have against catching your eye,
'Cause I keep throwing these parties and yet you never stop by.
Well, my attempts might be feeble, and yet I can't help but try.
I will pursue your affection until the day that I die.
And when I wake up alone, it's tough just to bear the day.
I catch sight of you, and I can't break my stare away.
This might be a stretch, but I think it'd be fair to say:
Just like Nick's last name, well I could take every care away

And then you finally stop by, a day I'll never forget,
'Cause we remembered the joy, and I let go of regret.
It took me back to my childhood and the first time we met,
'Cause now you're back in my life, my prodigal Juliet.
See, I worked so hard to find you, but I'd rather be late
Than for us to be never and to miss out on fate.
We'll leave this ghost town behind us, why don't you pick the date?
Just look me up in the phonebook: Gatsby comma Great.

Well you turn that green light off, and now it's me that knows,
Daisy, you left me bruised and broken, but I guess
that's how the story goes
Oh, my hope's so high that my dreams were soaring.
The 1920's and this engine, well they both were roaring.
And I swear I'd give my life just to set you free,
I don't think you understand, Daisy, you mean the world to me.
And it was worth it all, yeah it was worth it all, I swear

it's worth it all
Just to have laid that night in your arms.
