"Disconnected"

You're looking away from me
Won't turn your face to me
Stuck in a space
It's totally silent

People are staring
Wanna get out of here
And go somewhere
Somewhere you're gonna listen

We gotta talk baby boy
This cannot go on
Supposed to be in love
We got to get a long (so wrong)

Why are we disconnected
This can't be right
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes

You know it could be incredible
So that's not fine
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes
Of our lifes

Stop walking away from me
Too far away from me
I got things to say
And you're just ignoring

The fact that I'm trying here
To make it better
We're in a crystal
So you think it's boring

We gotta talk baby boy
This cannot go on
Supposed to be in love
Well does it feel so wrong (so wrong)

Why are we disconnected
This can't be right
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes

You know it could be incredible
So that's not fine
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes
Of our lifes

All we need is so it's here
To help each other
And melt the breeze

Why are we disconnected
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes

You know it could be incredible
So that's not fine
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes

Why are we disconnected
This can't be right
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes

You know it could be incredible
So that's not fine
Love should be easier
Should be the time of our lifes
Of our lifes
