Don't You see how i fight it
Trying to hide from a life of real pain
Maybe time has allowed it
Feeling the fell when im hearing
Your name
Cos you decide how i survive
Do you realise inside oh
Just how much it's killing me
Im just caught in the middle you
Play my heart with a little bit of Dangerous love and i really
Want to be free
Got me caught and im living in a
Low life world it's your unoriginality
That's killing me
Ive just got to be free
Now tell me what you want from me
Again and again you pretend it's alrightim feeling now that i can't breathe
Cant comprehend how you can't recognise
Cos time can't change the way i feel
And you will find that i'm gonna be
More than you'll ever let me be
Im just caught in the middle you
Play my heart with a little bit of
Dangerous love and i really
Want to be free
Got me caught and im living in a
Low life world it's your unoriginality
That's killing me
Ive just got to be free
Free to disown you
Coz i thought that i told you
You been treating me badly
And you misappreciate my love
Im trying to breathe
But it's killing me slowly
And you started to break me
With your dangerous love
Got to
Got to be free [repeat x4]
Im just caught in the middle you

Play my heart with a little bit of
Dangerous love and i really
Want to be free
Got me caught and im living in a
Low life world it's your unoriginality
That's killing me
Ive just got to be free
[Repeat..Fade]
