You took me in
When I'd fallen apart, took me back to the start
Where to begin
I was broken alone, there were pieces of me

You saved me
The search was sweet
The piece off the puzzle
The end of my troubles
When you found me

You don't know what you did for me
I was all alone, I was nearly gone
You don't know when you carried me
Took my broken bones and put them back together

You took me back, I had fallen off track
A castaway out in the sea
You set my path, you're a soft place to fall
Gave me comfort and sweetness

You saved me gracefully
The end of my troubles
'Cause you burst the bubble
When you found me

You don't know what you did for me
I was all alone, I was nearly gone
You don't know when you carried me
Took my broken bones and put them back together

You don't know what you did for me
I was all alone, I was nearly gone
You don't know when you carried me
You took my broken bones and put them back together

You don't know what you did for me
I was all alone and I was nearly gone
You don't know when you carried me
You took my broken bones and put them back together
You took me in
