The way we are the way we start the way we follow
The way we laugh the way we cry our way to stroll on
And here we are so near and far so full yet hollow

Everything is wonder, everything is wonder
One more day has come and went
A brief decline the sun still shines goodbye...
goodbye...
A brief decline the sun still shines goodbye...
goodbye...

The way we are the way we start the way we follow
The way we round the way plan together solo

Everything is wonder, Everything is wonder
One more night has come and went
A brief decline the starless sky goodbye... goodbye...
In cloudy eyes the moon resigns goodbye... goodbye
