Yes, I'm broke and I'm hungry, ragged and dirty too
Oh, I'm broke and I'm hungry, ragged and dirty too
Well, if I get some money, baby
Can I spend all night with you?

Now if I can't come in, let me sleep on the floor
If I can't come in, sleep down on the floor
I'll be quiet as a mouse
Your husband will never know

'Cause I ain't never loved but for a woman in my life
I ain't never loved but for a woman in my life
That's my mother and my sister
My daughter and my wife

Well, I ain't no stranger, darlin', I used to live right here
I'm no stranger, baby, I used to lived right here
When we walked hand in hand
Rockin' in your rockin' chair
