I'm in love with a vicious grace
I see beauty in a terrified soul
A blackened heart and a poison mind
Can't recognize the cruel from the kind

Impossible, impossible

Do unto others as they'd do unto you
Can't trust a soul unless you have one to trust
Times change and people die
Hate survives beyond the end of time

Impossible, impossible
Impossible, impossible

Inside the walls of hate
Absolve yourself of all your pain and regret
It's like a junky on a two day sick
Love ignores me, hate fixes quick

Impossible
Impossible
