Home is where you're happy and I'm happy here with
you

Or anyplace on earth where you may be

Home is where you're happy, just any house will do

And I'll feel at home as long as you're with me

This room could not hold me for one short minute

If you weren't here with me, I'd soon be gone

That chair is just a chair when you're not in it

It takes more than rooms and chairs to make a home

Home is where you're happy and I'm happy here with
you

Or anyplace on earth where you may be

Home is where you're happy, just any house will do

And I'll feel at home as long as you're with me

Time someday should cause this house to crumble

But we'll move into another love and all

And if time someday should make your footsteps stumble

I'll be there to catch you should you fall

Home is where you're happy and I'm happy here with
you

Home is where you're happy, just any house will do

And I'll feel at home as long as you're with me
