"I Can Cry Again"

It's good to see that I can cry again now I return to life and live again

As the teardrops wash the heartaches from a man

I'm glad to say that I can cry again

So long my pride would not let my tears to fall

I walk walk to burning hell and never cry at all

As the teardrops wash the heartaches from a man

I'm glad to say that I can cry again

[guitar]

So long my pride would not let my tears to fall

As the teardrops wash the heartaches from a man

It's good to know that I can cry again

I'm glad to say that I can cry again
