The sun just went behind the clouds
There's darkness all around me now
And I've just destroyed the world, I'm livin' in
I broke her heart so many times
And now at last, I've broken mine
And I've just destroyed the world, I'm livin' in

What made me think that I could go on hurtin' her?
I had to know there had to be an end
The fools in love are taught by faith
We never learn till it's too late
And I've just destroyed the world, I'm livin' in

What made me think that I could go on hurtin' her?
I had to know there had to be an end
The fools in love are taught by faith
We never learn till it's too late
And I've just destroyed the world, I'm livin' in
And I've just destroyed the world, I'm livin' in
