I let my mind wander and what did it do?
It just kept right on goin' 'til it got back to you

When I let my mind wander I can't trust it one minute
It's worse than a child, disobeys without conscience
And it's drivin' me wild

When I let my mind wander
I try to keep my mind busy with thoughts of today
But invariably, memories seem to steal it away

My lonely heart wonders if there'll ever come a day
When I can be happy but I can't see no way
'Cause I let my mind wander

Gotta keep my mind busy on thoughts of today
Or invariably, memories seem to lure it away

My lonely heart wonders if there'll ever come a day
When I can be happy but I can't see no way
When I let my mind wander, when I let my mind wander
I let my mind wander
